EXECUTIVES

DAVID MONTGOMERY

General Partner, President and Chief Executive Officer

David Montgomery's first association with the Phillies was as a young fan growing up in Philadelphia, attending hundreds of games at Connie Mack Stadium. He realized every baseball fan's dream when he started working for the club in 1971, just in time for the opening of the new Veterans Stadium.

After graduating with an MBA from the University of Pennsylvania's Wharton School, Montgomery began his career in the Phillies Sales Office selling season and group tickets. He advanced to positions as marketing director and then director of sales before becoming executive vice president after the 1981 season.

He was elevated to chief operating officer in 1992. In 1994, Montgomery was designated as co-general partner and acquired an ownership interest in the team. On June 20, 1997, he succeeded Bill Giles as general partner, president and chief executive officer.

Montgomery's association with the Phillies from Connie Mack to Veterans Stadium has moved to Citizens Bank Park, which opened in April 2004. Under his leadership, the Phillies constructed new state-of-the-art facilities in both Philadelphia and Clearwater, Fla., with the 2004 opening of Bright House Networks Field, the home of Phillies Spring Training and the Clearwater Threshers.

During his 42 years in the game, Montgomery has been active in a wide range of areas for Major League Baseball. He is presently vice chair of the Board of Directors of Major League Baseball Enterprises (formerly MLB Properties) and is a member of MLB's Executive Council. In addition, he serves on the board of MLB Network. Montgomery is also a member of MLB's Schedule Committee and Labor Policy Committee as well as the Commissioner's Special Committee for On-Field Matters.

Locally, Montgomery remains an active alumnus of the University of Pennsylvania where he served as a trustee. He currently serves on the university's Board of Overseers of the Annenberg Center for the Performing Arts. He is a past member and former chair of the policy board of WXPN Radio – 88.5FM, the university's member-supported radio station. In October 2009, Montgomery received the Penn Alumni Award of Merit in recognition of his dedication and service to the university.

In addition to his Penn activities, Montgomery is the current chairman of the Philadelphia Sports Congress and is a member of the board of directors of the Greater Philadelphia Chamber of Commerce. He also serves on the board of Need in Deed, a nonprofit service-learning organization working with children in Philadelphia public schools. He is a past board chairman of both the Schuylkill Center for Environmental Education and the Woodlynde School, a private K-12 school in Strafford, Pa.

PAL presented Montgomery and the Phillies with the Police Athletic League Award in May 2008 in appreciation of his and the ballclub's long-time support of PAL and commitment to Philadelphia youth. In June 2009, Montgomery and the Phillies received the Vision for Philadelphia Award from Philadelphia Hospitality. Montgomery represented the ballclub in May 2012 when the Phillies were honored as community champions by the Alzheimer's Association Delaware Valley Chapter. He continues to serve, along with H.F. "Gerry" Lenfest, as an honorary co-chair for the Children's Scholarship Fund Philadelphia's Campaign for 10,000 Children. Montgomery also serves as a co-chair of the annual "Get in the Game" fundraiser for Philadelphia Futures, a program that helps inner-city students achieve their dream of a college education.

Two keystones of the Phillies' charitable endeavors are the Phillies Phestival, held each season in support of the ALS Association – Greater Philadelphia Chapter, and the annual Phillies Holiday Dinner, prepared and served by front office staff, at the Bethesda Project's "Our Brother's Place," a homeless facility in North Philadelphia.

The ballclub is also very active on the education front with the sponsorship of "Be A Phanatic About Reading" and Phillies Phundamentals, youth programs aimed at combining fun and learning with baseball. EXECUTIVES

BILL GILES
Chairman

Baseball has been Bill Giles' life. His father, the late Warren C. Giles, was president and general manager of the Cincinnati Reds (1946-51) and president of the National League (1951-69). Giles spent much of his childhood with his father at Crosley Field in Cincinnati and got his first job in baseball as a teenager doing all kinds of odds and ends in the Reds' Public Relations Department.

From that inauspicious beginning, Giles went on to establish his own impressive baseball career. He has held various positions with two National League teams, Houston and Philadelphia, and served on numerous committees in baseball while being one of Philadelphia's most visible community activists. Currently chairman of the Phillies, Giles was appointed honorary National League president early in the 2001 season, the first father-son combination at that level in baseball history. His appointment by Commissioner Bud Selig is a testimony to his stature in the game. In January 2010, he was given the Bud Selig Executive Leadership Award for lifetime achievement in baseball from the Professional Baseball Scouts Foundation. Giles is also a member of the Veterans Committee of baseball's Hall of Fame.

Following graduation from Denison University, Giles spent three years in the U.S. Air Force as a navigator in the Strategic Air Command.

His baseball career took on a full-time status in 1959 when he was named GM of the Nashville Vols, a Cincinnati minor league team. From there, he moved to the expansion Houston Colt 45s. While in Houston, Giles served as traveling secretary, publicity director, director of public relations and promotions, and vice president. With the opening of Veterans Stadium approaching, the Carpenter family brought Giles to Philadelphia to run the business end of the operation.

Giles began his Phillies career as vice president, business operations, following the 1969 season. Three years later he was promoted to executive vice president.

When the Carpenters put the team up for sale in the spring of 1981, Giles organized a group that purchased the team on October 29, 1981. He remained president of the club until June 20, 1997, when he moved up to chairman. In the summer of 2001, Giles was nominated to serve as honorary president of the National League, a role in which he represents the NL at the All-Star Game and postseason play.

Giles is among Philadelphia's more civically involved citizens: chairman emeritus of the board, Philadelphia Convention and Tourism Bureau; member of the Executive Committee, Philadelphia Chamber of Commerce and Philadelphia Sports Congress; past president of the Boy Scouts of America and the Corporate Alliance for Drug Education; on the boards of the Pennsylvania Chamber of Commerce, Police Athletic League and Salvation Army; and a member of the Union League, Rotary Club and the visitors boards of the Temple University Medical School and Temple University Journalism School.

He has been honored many, many times for his contributions to the city. Among the awards: Distinguished Citizen of the Year by the Boy Scouts of America; Garry Maddox Award by the Philadelphia Child Guidance Center; Police Athletic League Man of the Year (1993), Philadelphia Boys Choir Man of the Year (1994); Anti-Defamation League Man of the Year (1994); American Red Cross Man of the Year (1996), Vision of Philadelphia Award (1996) by Philadelphia Hospitality, Inc.; the American Heart Association's Man of the Year; the Team Leadership Award from the Tug McGraw Foundation (2006); Crescent Award from Rosemont College (2010) and Man of the Year by Chamounix (2010).

Born in Rochester, N.Y., Giles resides in Villanova, Pa., with his wife Nancy. They are the parents of three sons, Michael, Joseph and Christopher. Michael and his wife Nanette have twins, daughter Lowell (Lowie) and son William (Will). Joe and his wife Paula have four children, Caroline, Dana, Molly and Max. Chris and his wife Amy have two children, Eliza and Warren.

Giles wrote a book about his baseball career entitled Pouring Six Beers at a Time: And Other Stories from a Lifetime in Baseball and is co-authoring a new book about the business of baseball which will be available in March 2014.

DAVID BUCK
Senior Vice President, Marketing and Advertising Sales

David Buck, a lifelong Phillies fan with over 25 years of experience with the club, was promoted to senior vice president, marketing and advertising sales, in February of 2007. In this role, David oversees the Phillies marketing department, encompassing advertising sales, events, fan development, broadcasting, video services, advertising, merchandising and promotions.

Prior to his promotion, David was vice president of advertising sales for eight seasons. He oversaw the transition from Veterans Stadium to Citizens Bank Park from a sponsorship perspective, and helped conceive and implement the strategy of bringing all advertising elements (television, radio, signage, print and promotions) under the control of the Phillies. Additionally, David led the club's team that secured the 25-year naming rights partnership with Citizens Bank.

Born in Abington, Pa., David attended Springfield High School and graduated from Lafayette College in 1986 with a BA in history. He stays connected to Lafayette by hosting students each offseason in an externship program. He also serves on the board of directors of the Please Touch Museum, a children's museum located in Philadelphia, and is a member of the St. Joseph's University Sports Marketing Advisory Board.

David and his wife Nancy live in Broad Axe, Pa., with their three children, Andrew, Katie and Jake.

MICHAEL STILES
Senior Vice President, Administration and Operations

Michael Stiles was hired by the Phillies as vice president for administration and operations in April 2001. He became a senior vice president on February 1, 2007.

As an attorney since 1971, Michael Stiles held significant positions in public service for almost 30 years, most recently serving from 1993 until 2001 as the United States Attorney for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania. He also spent 10 years as an elected trial judge in the Court of Common Pleas of Philadelphia County and 12 years as a trial attorney and supervisor in the Philadelphia District Attorney's Office, the last two of which he served as first assistant district attorney.

Born in Philadelphia, Michael obtained his undergraduate degree in political science from the University of Pennsylvania and his law degree, with honors, from Villanova University School of Law. He is the past chairperson of the Woodlynde School Board of Directors, and a former member of the board of directors of United Way for Southeastern Pennsylvania and the board of trustees of Thomas Jefferson University. He presently serves as a member of the executive board for the Committee of Seventy.

Michael and his wife Leslie live in the East Falls section of Philadelphia. They have two adult children, Jacqueline and Eric; three grandchildren, Jack, Whitney and Cole; and a golden retriever, Mulligan.

BONNIE CLARK
Vice President, Communications

Bonnie Clark joined the Phillies in April 2008 as vice president, communications. In her role, she oversees baseball communications, player relations, community outreach, publicity, crisis and issues management, business communications, creative services and publications. Since joining the club, Bonnie has focused on extending the Phillies brand beyond traditional media relations boundaries of sports press and securing exposure for the franchise on the Food Network, Bravo, Discovery and other mainstream media outlets.

Prior to joining the Phillies, Bonnie worked for multi-media retailer QVC for close to nine years where she served as director of corporate affairs and vice president of public relations. In her role there, she was responsible for creating public relations and media relations strategies that increased awareness and enhanced the brand. She also spearheaded all crisis and issues management for the company.

Before QVC, Bonnie worked with Tierney Communications in Philadelphia where she served as associate vice president for the agency's consumer public relations division and was responsible for developing and implementing communications strategies for consumer clients. She also held various positions of increasing responsibility with Golin/Harris Communications in Philadelphia and at New York agencies M. Silver Associates and Ogilvy & Mather Public Relations, where she developed and implemented public relations campaigns for industry leaders and internationally respected consumer brands.

Bonnie graduated from Delaware Valley High School in Milford, Pa., and received her bachelor's degree in journalism from West Virginia University in 1986. She is a council member of Third Century Initiative (3CI), a Greater Philadelphia Chamber of Commerce organization dedicated to strengthening the economic vitality of Philadelphia's business community. Bonnie also serves as a board member for the Kennedy Health System Foundation and is a member of the Baseball Assistance Team (B.A.T.) Women's Subcommittee.

Bonnie lives in Cherry Hill, N.J., with her three children, Kyle, Troy and Jenna.

RICHARD DEATS
Vice President, Phillies Enterprises

Richard Deats assumed the title of vice president, Phillies Enterprises on February 1, 2007.

He joined the Phillies in 1974 as a ticket office representative after spending five years as a teacher and coach at Germantown Academy. Richard worked in the ticket office for two years until being named director of group sales in January 1976. In 1982, he assumed responsibility for season tickets and was made sales director and in 1987 he added ticket operations to his responsibilities and title. He was named vice president of ticket sales and operations in January of 1992 and oversaw the sale, production and delivery of all Phillies tickets until the end of the 2006 season, which included 1993, the first year in Phillies history with attendance of over 3 million, and 2004, which was the opening of Citizens Bank Park.

During the construction of Citizens Bank Park, Richard worked with Ewing Cole and HOK as the design liaison for the Phillies and it was during this time that he began transitioning to his current position in which he represents the Phillies in many of their business relationships.

In 2008, he was honored for his contributions to the club with the Richie Ashburn Special Achievement Award, given to a member of the Phillies organization who has demonstrated loyalty, dedication and passion for the game. RUBEN AMARO JR.

Senior Vice President & General Manager

Ruben Amaro Jr. was named senior vice president & general manager on November 3, 2008, after 10 years as assistant GM under Pat Gillick (2006-08) and Ed Wade (1999-2005). In his four years as GM, the Phillies have three NL East division titles, one NL pennant and the best record in the National League at 373-275 (.576), trailing only the New York Yankees in all of baseball (390-258, .602)

Over a two-year span (2010-11), Ruben constructed a team that had the best records (97-65 & 102-60, respectively) in the major leagues. Prior to 2010, the Phillies had never posted the best record over the course of a major league season.

In his first year as GM, the Phillies won the National League pennant, making it to the seventh World Series in club history, and the team's 93 wins were the most in 16 years (97 wins in 1993). Following the season, Ruben was named Executive of the Year by the Philadelphia Sports Writers Association (PSWA) and the Phillies were honored as both the Team of the Year by the PSWA and Organization of the Year by Baseball America.

Adhering to an old-school philosophy that pitching and defense wins games, in his first two years on the job, Ruben acquired via trade and free agency four 20-game winners – Pedro Martinez, Cliff Lee (twice), Roy Halladay and Roy Oswalt. Three of the four – Martinez, Lee and Halladay – combined for six Cy Young Awards.

Born and raised in Philadelphia, Ruben was a batboy for the Phillies from 1980-83 when his father, Ruben Sr., a former shortstop with the club, was first base coach. He is a 1983 graduate of the William Penn Charter School, where he played both baseball and soccer. In 1987, he earned a BS degree in human biology from Stanford University and was a member of the 1987 NCAA Baseball Championship team.

After being selected by the Angels in the 11th round of the 1987 draft, Ruben made his major league debut with the club in 1991. Following that season, he was traded to his hometown Phillies, where he spent five of his final seven big league seasons (1992-93, 96-98). His only time away was 1994-95, when he played for Cleveland. Ruben played for both the 1993 NL Champion Phillies and the 1995 AL Champion Indians. In 1996, he ranked third among NL pinch-hitters with a .387 average. Following the 1998 season, his last as an active player, Ruben moved into the Phillies front office as assistant general manager.

During his 10 years as assistant GM, Ruben was involved in 40-man roster decisions and major league free agent contract negotiations, including those players eligible for salary arbitration. He also aided in the decision-making process of major league players and staff, including trades, player movements and hirings.

The Amaro family (Ruben Jr., his father Ruben Sr. and his late grandfather Santos) were the 2001 winners of the Al Dia Latino Legends Award, given annually to a Hispanic player(s) in Phillies history. In addition to that honor, Ruben Jr. was inducted into the All-American Amateur Baseball Association Hall of Fame in July 2008. He is also a co-founder of the Richie Ashburn Foundation, which provides free baseball camps for 1,100 underprivileged children in the Delaware Valley and awards grants for area schools and colleges. In addition, he serves on the board for the Philadelphia chapter of the YMCA.

Ruben was born in Philadelphia, Pa., and currently lives in Yardley. He has two daughters, Andrea and Sophia. He and his father are the only father-son combination to ever play for the Phillies.

PAT GILLICK

Senior Advisor to the President/General Manager

Pat Gillick moved into his current position in November of 2008 after fulfilling his three-year contract as senior vice president & general manager of the Phillies and building the club into back-to-back NL Eastern Division Champions (2007-08) and 2008 World Champions. The championship was the third of his 27-year career as a major league general manager and the second in the history of the Phillies franchise.

On December 6, 2010, Pat was elected to the National Baseball Hall of Fame by the Expansion Era Committee. He became just the fourth individual elected whose career has been defined nearly exclusively as a team architect, joining Ed Barrow, Branch Rickey and George Weiss. Overall, he became the 32nd major league executive to be enshrined in the Hall of Fame. He was inducted on July 24, 2011, along with Roberto Almoar and Bert Blyleven. Pat was also named to the advisory board for SABR (Society for American Baseball Research) in the fall of 2011.

Prior to being named GM of the Phillies on November 2, 2005, Gillick held the same position with the Blue Jays (1978-94), Orioles (1996-98) and Mariners (2000-03). His career record as a GM stands at 2,276-1,993 (.533), including at least 91 wins in six of his final nine seasons. His resume includes two World Series championships (1992-93) and five AL East titles (1985, 1989, 1991-93) with Toronto, one AL East title (1997) and one wild card berth (1996) with Baltimore, one AL West title (2001) and one wild card berth (2000) with Seattle and one World Series championship (2008) and two NL East titles (2007-08) with Philadelphia. Pat's records with each team were 1,352-1,297 (.510) in Toronto, 265-221 (.545) in Baltimore and 393-255 (.606) in Seattle. During his four years in Seattle (2000-03), no team in Major League Baseball had a better record. With Philadelphia, his record was 266-220 (.547).

The 2013 season marks Pat's 56th in professional baseball. From 1963 through 1976, he held numerous front office positions with the Astros and Yankees, including assistant farm director, regional scouting coordinator, director of scouting and coordinator of player development and scouting.

In August of 1976, Pat was named the vice president of player personnel for the expansion Toronto Blue Jays, becoming the franchise's first general manager at age 38. His title was changed to vice president of baseball operations on November 24, 1977, and then executive vice president, baseball, on September 24, 1984.

Pat stepped down as Blue Jays GM after the 1994 season and served as a consultant to the team in 1995.

Following the 1995 season, Pat had a brief retirement before being hired as Baltimore's GM on November 27, 1995. In his first two seasons with Baltimore – 1996-97 – the Orioles advanced to the ALCS.

When his three-year contract with Baltimore expired after the 1998 season, Pat accepted a position as the chair of the 1999 Pan Am Games baseball team steering committee.

On October 25, 1999, he was hired by Seattle as executive vice president & general manager, baseball operations. Once again, as in Baltimore, Pat's teams advanced to the ALCS in his first two years (2000-01), including tying a major league record with 116 wins in 2001.

Prior to joining the Phillies, Pat had spent the previous two seasons (2004-05) with Seattle as special consultant to the executive VP/GM.

Pat was born in Chico, Calif. In 1954 – at age 16 – he graduated from Notre Dame High School in Sherman Oaks, Calif., where he played baseball and football. He enrolled at the University of Southern California in the fall and graduated in 1958 at the age of 20 with a bachelor's degree in business. Pat pitched at USC and was a member of the NCAA College World Series championship team in 1958.

Pat and his wife Doris reside in Seattle, Wash. The couple has one daughter, Kimberley (11/24/72).

Before being hired in Philadelphia, Scott worked for the Baltimore Orioles as the director of baseball administration for three years (2006-08), where – in addition to many of the same roles he has with the Phillies – he coordinated the team's baseball data system and prepared the Baseball Operations budget. Prior to joining the Orioles, he spent 11 seasons in a similar capacity with the Tampa Bay Rays, which he joined as director of baseball administration on July 27, 1995, only four months after the franchise was awarded and two and a half years before the organization would field a major league team. He was hired by the Pirates as director of marketing information systems in November 1987 and moved over to scouting and player development assistant in December 1989. A year later, he went to the Atlanta Braves and spent five years there in scouting and player development capacities, the last as assistant director for scouting and player development, before joining the Rays.

Born in Dayton, Ohio, Scott was raised in Norwood, Mass., and Rochester, N.Y. He graduated from The College of William & Mary before earning a master's degree in sports management from the University of Massachusetts. He is also a certified public accountant.

His primary focus was on Seattle's 40-man roster, including reviewing players throughout the club's minor league system and projecting where they would fit on the big league club.

In 2000, the Mariners' minor league system posted the highest winning percentage in organized baseball. At the conclusion of the season, the Topps Company recognized them as the Organization of the Year.

Benny joined the Mariners in March 1987 as a part-time scout. He was promoted to full-time scout in 1988 and then to midwest scouting supervisor (1989-91). A GOOD THING GOIN'

2012 marked the Phillies' 10th straight season of playing .500 or better baseball (899-721 record in that span). That streak matches the longest stretch in team history, as the Phillies did not finish below .500 from the 1975-84 seasons (872-693-2 record in that span). In their last 12 seasons (since 2001), the Phillies have finished with a winning percentage below .500 just once (2002: 80-81 record).

GOOD POSITIONING

The Phillies finished 2012 in third place in the National League East. It was the club's first finish in third place since 2003, as Philadelphia had finished second or better in the East in each of the previous eight seasons. Since 2000, the Phillies have finished below 3rd place only once (5th place in 2000). In that 13-year span, Philadelphia has finished first five times, second four times, third three times and fifth once.

A TALE OF TWO HALVES

Prior to the All-Star break, the Phillies went 37-50 and their .425 winning percentage in that span ranked 12th among all National League teams. However, in their 75 games after the break, Philadelphia posted the 5th-best record in the NL at 44-31 (.587).

According to the Elias Sports Bureau, 14 games under .500 was the 2nd-most for the Phillies in a season in which they finished with a .500 or better winning percentage (15 games under in 1962; finished 81-80). In addition, of all major league teams in 2012, the Phillies were the most games under .500 at any point of the season to finish at .500 or better.

TURNSTILE TRAFFIC

For the second straight season, Philadelphia led all of Major League Baseball in both home total attendance at 3,565,718 and in home average attendance at 44,021 (Phils led NL in both categories each of last three years). Prior to 2011, the Phillies had never led baseball in attendance. 2012 marked the 6th straight year in which the Phillies reached the 3 million mark at Citizens Bank Park and last year's total was the 4th-highest in club history. On August 6, 2012, Philadelphia's franchise-best sellout streak came to an end at 257 consecutive regular season games. That streak, which started on July 7, 2009, was the longest ever for a National League club and the 3rd longest for any MLB team behind Cleveland (455) and Boston (793 - active).

THE RUNNING RATE

For the 6th straight season, the Phillies led all major league teams in stolen base percentage (83.5%, 116-for-139). According to the Elias Sports Bureau, in the last 50 years (since 1962), no other club has led the majors in stolen base percentage for six straight seasons.

2012 TEAM NOTES

FOR STARTERS

Phillies starting pitchers led all major league staffs in innings (1033.0), strikeouts (918) and fewest walks issued (231) in 2012. Philadelphia had 99 quality starts last year to rank tied for 2nd with STL (NYM: 100). The Phillies had a starters ERA of 3.82 which ranked 7th-best in the National League and 10th-best in MLB.

BACKSTOP BOOST

Phillies catchers Carlos Ruiz, Brian Schneider, Erik Kratz and Steven Lerud combined to lead all National League backstops in slugging percentage (.497), extra-base hits (70) and doubles (46) in 2012. Additional NL rankings for Phillies catchers included 3rd in batting average (.295), on-base percentage (.363), hits (172) & home runs (24) and 4th in RBI (95) and runs scored (76).

ALL-STARS AMONG US

The Phillies had three players named to the 2012 National League All-Star team, pitchers Cole Hamels and Jonathan Papelbon and catcher Carlos Ruiz. It marked the ninth straight year in which the Phils had more than one representative on the roster. For Ruiz, it was his first career selection to a major league All-Star team. For Hamels, it was his third and for Papelbon it was his fifth and first in the NL. Ruiz went 0-for-1 at the plate and caught the final 4.0 innings of the game. Hamels threw a scoreless 7th inning and Papelbon retired the only batter he faced for the final out of the game in the NL's 8-0 win at Kauffman Field in Kansas City.

TEAM HOMER NOTES

The Phillies had 24 different players hit at least one home run in 2012 to set a franchise record; the previous record of 23 players was set in 1996. In addition, Philadelphia had seven players hit 10 or more homers last year which was tied for the 2nd-most in club history in a single season (11th time); the club record is nine players. Two Phillies narrowly missed 10 homers in 2012, as Shane Victorino and Erik Kratz both finished with nine.

SPREADING THE WEALTH

Eighteen different Phillies pitchers earned wins in 2012, including four who recorded their first major league victories (Jake Diekman, Jeremy Horst, B.J. Rosenberg and Tyler Cloyd). 2012 marked the 5th time that the Phils had at least 18 pitchers record at least one win (others: 1989, 1992, 1994, 2007). Philadelphia had 19 in 2000 and 2009 and a club-record 20 in 1999.

WALK-OFFS

The Phillies won in walk-off fashion 11 times in 2012, their most such victories since 1991 when they had 13. Eight of their walkoffs last year came after the All-Star break. Among all MLB clubs, Philadelphia ranked tied for 3rd in walk-off wins with CIN, trailing only LAD (12) and OAK (14).

HOME RECAP

The Phillies finished the home portion of their schedule with a 40-41 (.494) record, marking their first sub-.500 season at home since 2000. That snapped a streak of 11 consecutive winning seasons at home which was the 4th-longest streak among MLB clubs entering 2012, behind STL (12), BOS (14) and NYY (20). Through their first 46 home games, the Phillies were just 17-29 (.370). However, over their final 35 games, the Phillies posted a 23-12 record (.657) at Citizens Bank Park. In their 26 total series at home, the Phillies had 10 wins, 13 losses and 3 splits.

ROAD REVIEW

The Phillies were one of just six National League teams (WSH, CIN, ATL, SF & LAD) in 2012 to finish over .500 on the road (41-40, .506). 2012 marked the 9th straight season in which Philadelphia posted an above .500 record on the road (since 2004). In their 26 road series last year, Philadelphia had 14 wins, 10 losses and 2 splits.

PHILLIES TEAM HISTORY

Philadelphia, a city rich in history and tradition, has played an integral part in professional baseball's history.

The city had several teams of different nicknames as far back as the 1860s, including a team called the Athletics in the National Association, a league that folded in 1875. Several of the stronger teams, including the Athletics, formed the National League, as it is still known today. The other charter members were the Boston Red Caps, Chicago White Stockings, Cincinnati Red Stockings, St. Louis Brown Stockings, Hartford Dark Blues, New York Mutuals and Louisville Grays.

The very first National League game was played in Philadelphia on April 22, 1876, at 25th and Jefferson Streets. Boston won, 6-5, before an estimated crowd of 3,000.

Resting in seventh place with a 14-45 record, the Athletics couldn't make their final western trip because of insufficient funds. The team was immediately expelled from the league.

Philadelphia was without a National League franchise until 1883. Following the 1882 season, the Worcester (MA) Brown Stockings were disbanded. The NL wanted a team in Philadelphia so a franchise was awarded to Alfred J. Reach, a former player and Philadelphia sporting goods founder, and attorney Col. John I. Rogers.

Starting a ballclub from scratch, the new owners named the team "Phillies," because they wanted the club to be identified with the city of Philadelphia. The Phillies endure as the oldest, continuous, one-nickname, one-city franchise in all of professional sports, an extraordinary tradition.

Alfred Reach

PHILLIES FIRST GAME

The Phillies played their first game on May 1, 1883, losing to the Providence Grays, 4-3, at Recreation Park, at 24th and Columbia Avenues. The crowd was estimated at 1,200.

It was the start of a tradition in which 1,891 players have put on a Phillies uniform and over 131 million spectators have attended games in the city.

Since none of the players from the Worcester team were part of the sale, the first Phillies roster was made up of ex-minor league players and players from other NL teams. The team finished last, 17-81-1, and total attendance was a reported 55,992.

In 1887, the Phillies moved into a new "magnificent park" at Broad and Huntingdon Streets, which later became known as Baker Bowl (capacity 12,500). An estimated 20,000 fans jammed the park for the first game on April 30, a 19-10 win over the New York Giants.

Starting in 1901, the Phillies shared the Philadelphia baseball scene as the American League was formed. One of the eight AL teams was the Athletics under manager Connie Mack. Initially, the A's were more successful and popular. A little more than a half-century later, the team was moved to Kansas City, leaving the Phillies as Philadelphia's lone major league ballclub.

Pat Moran

The Phillies' first championship came in 1915 when Pat Moran, a former reserve catcher with the Phillies, led them to the pennant in his first year as manager. Grover Cleveland Alexander, a 31-game winner, won the first World Series game against the Boston Red Sox, who then swept the next four games. Woodrow Wilson became the first President to throw out the first ball at a World Series game. The historic moment took place prior to Game 2, Oct. 9, 1915, in Philadelphia.

Alexander was one of three Hall of Famers on the 1915 pennant-winners. Left-handed pitcher Eppa Rixey and shortstop Dave "Beauty" Bancroft were the others.

The A's, under the stability of one owner, the Shibe family and later Mack, continued to do well, winning back-to-back World Championships in 1929-30. The Phillies, meanwhile, struggled for years under numerous owners, but had a star in outfielder Chuck Klein. The future Hall of Famer began a brilliant career with the Phillies in 1928.

Baker Bowl, once a magnificent ballpark, began to deteriorate. Following 51 years in that park, the Phillies moved to Shibe Park, the home of the A's, on July 4, 1938. In 1953, Shibe Park was re-named Connie Mack Stadium in honor of the A's longtime manager. Following 11 eighth-place finishes in 23 seasons, the A's left town after the 1954 season. The Phillies continued to play their home games in Connie Mack Stadium through 1970.

CARPENTER ERA BEGINS

Perhaps the most significant move in Phillies history came when the Carpenter family of duPont wealth in Wilmington, Del., bought the team on November 23, 1943, for an estimated $400,000.

In an effort to stimulate more interest in the club, Bob Carpenter Jr., the new president, announced a contest was being held to find a nickname for the Phillies. The name Blue Jays was chosen from among 623 suggestions.

Although it still maintained the official Phillies title, the club was known as the Blue Jays for the 1944 and 1945 seasons. The new name was used heavily during that time, but usage began to drop off in the following years and the Blue Jays name never appeared in the newspapers after 1947.

When Carpenter took over as president, he began to pour money into building a minor league system. The efforts paid off rather quickly when a young team nicknamed the Whiz Kids won the 1950 pennant. Dick Sisler hit a dramatic three-run homer in the 10th inning at Ebbets Field to sink the Brooklyn Dodgers, 4-1, on the last day of the season. Unfortunately, a world title eluded the Phillies as they were swept by the New York Yankees in four games. The Whiz Kids had two players that would eventually be enshrined in Cooperstown, pitcher Robin Roberts and outfielder Richie Ashburn.

Eddie Sawyer's young club was expected to be a force for a few years but a third-place tie in 1953 was the best they could do.

As early as that year, a new stadium in Philadelphia was envisioned by Mayor Richardson Dilworth. Fourteen years and many disagreements later, ground was broken for Veterans Stadium, which finally opened on April 10, 1971, with the Phillies defeating the Montreal Expos, 4-1.

PHILLIES TEAM HISTORY

Under the leadership of Ruly Carpenter, who replaced his dad as club president in 1972, and General Manager Paul Owens, the Phillies dominated the National League East in the mid-1970s. They won three consecutive division titles starting in 1976 but couldn't get over the hump until 1980, a year after they signed free agent Pete Rose.

Led by manager Dallas Green, the Phillies made it to the World Series that year by defeating the Houston Astros in a gut-wrenching National League Championship Series. Sisler's historic homer in 1950 was replaced as the greatest moment in Phillies history at precisely 11:29 p.m. on Tuesday, October 21, 1980, when Tug McGraw struck out Kansas City's Willie Wilson to give the franchise its first World Championship.

The powerful Phillies teams of that era were anchored by two Hall of Famers, Steve Carlton, the first pitcher to win four Cy Young Awards, and third baseman Mike Schmidt, a three-time MVP.

CARPENTER FAMILY SELLS

The end of a different era occurred after the 1981 season. Citing escalating player salaries, the Carpenter family put the Phillies up for sale. Bill Giles, executive vice president under Ruly Carpenter, and five other partners purchased the team for $30 million.

In just the second year of this new ownership group, the Phillies won their fifth Eastern Division title in eight years. Adding two veterans, Tony Perez and Joe Morgan, to an experienced team created the nickname Wheeze Kids.

Owens, who went from the front office to manage the team in July, guided the Phillies to their fourth Fall Classic by eliminating the Los Angeles Dodgers in the 1983 NLCS. The Baltimore Orioles, however, won the World Series, 4-1.

The next time the Phillies found themselves in the playoffs was 1993, under manager Jim Fregosi. That club went from a last-place finish the previous year to the division title, leading the NL East for all but one day of the season.

As underdogs, the Phillies dumped the favored Atlanta Braves, 4-2, to make their third World Series appearance in the last 13 years. Fregosi joined Moran, Sawyer, Green and Owens as managers who led the Phillies to an NL pennant and a trip to the Fall Classic. However, a very entertaining World Series abruptly ended with Joe Carter's three-run homer, which gave the Toronto Blue Jays their second consecutive World Championship.

CITIZENS BANK PARK OPENS

Ten years later, the Phillies family said goodbye to Veterans Stadium through a season-long series of "Field of Memories" events, which culminated with an emotional closing ceremony on September 28, 2003, featuring dozens of current and former Phils. The following season, the Phillies moved into Citizens Bank Park, a state-of-the-art, grass and dirt ballpark. The outfield concourse was christened "Ashburn Alley," named after the Phillies' beloved Hall of Fame outfielder and broadcaster.

After four second-place finishes, the Phillies won the NL East in 2007, their first division title in 14 years. With Charlie Manuel at the helm, the Phillies overcame a seven-game deficit with 17 regular-season games left to play to edge the Mets on the last day of the season. However, they were swept in the first round of the playoffs by the Colorado Rockies.

The following year the Phillies cemented their place in history by winning their second World Championship. After defeating the Milwaukee Brewers in the Division Series and the Los Angeles Dodgers in the National League Championship Series, Brad Lidge's strikeout of Tampa Bay's Eric Hinske on October 29, 2008, started the biggest block party in the history of Philadelphia. Two days later, the parade down Broad Street was attended by an estimated 2 million fans. After a stop at Lincoln Financial Field, it culminated with an unforgettable on-field ceremony at Citizens Bank Park, where the Phillies were a perfect 7-0 in the playoffs.

In 2009, the Phillies made their second straight World Series appearance, a first in franchise history. It was the club's fifth appearance in the Fall Classic in 30 years, matching the Cardinals and Braves for the most in the NL during that period of time. The Yankees, who led all clubs with eight World Series appearances in the same time frame, defeated the Phillies, four games to two.

The Phillies recorded a franchise-record 102 victories in 2011 and for the second time in as many seasons, they led the majors in wins, a first in club history. That year also brought the team's run of consecutive division titles to five, tied with the Oakland Athletics for the third longest streak in the Divisional Era (since 1969) among all major league teams, trailing only the Yankees (9) and Braves (14).

Fan support at Citizens Bank Park remained strong in 2012 as the Phillies led the majors in attendance for the second straight season. Through their first nine seasons at the ballpark, the club drew better than three million fans seven different times, including the record-setting mark of 3,680,718 in 2011. Highlighting that run of was a streak of 257 consecutive regular-season sellouts – a National League record – at Citizens Bank Park from July 7, 2009 to August 6, 2012.

Homegrown talent was instrumental in the 1950 pennant-winners and the great 1976-83 era. That same formula has provided Phillies fans with the current run of excellence. Jimmy Rollins, Chase Utley, Ryan Howard, Carlos Ruiz and Cole Hamels are all products of the Phillies scouting and player development department.

One other talented homegrown character is the Phillie Phanatic, who debuted on April 25, 1978. As with the baseball team, the Phanatic, too, is a Philadelphia tradition.

JACKIE ROBINSON

Commissioner Bud Selig announced that all teams would retire No. 42 in 1997 during the 50th anniversary of Jackie Robinson's becoming the first African American to play in Major League Baseball... Robinson made his debut in 1947 with the Brooklyn Dodgers, who retired his number following his 1972 death... In 1987, the National League Rookie of the Year Award was renamed after Robinson... Former pitching coach Galen Cisco was the last Phillie to wear the number, in 1997. (The 1997 rule was grandfathered, meaning a player who had worn the number could retain it until that player retired. Mike Jackson, who wore No. 42, was signed as a free agent by the Phillies for the 2000 season but he did not pitch in a game that year.)

Game 3 - October 31

After waiting out an 80-minute rain delay prior to Game 3, the Yankees took a 2-games-to-1 advantage in the Series with an 8-5 win at Citizens Bank Park. The Phillies jumped out to an early 3-0 lead off New York starter Andy Pettitte but could not hold on. One inning after Alex Rodriguez's two-run homer off Cole Hamels got the Yankees on the board, New York scored three more runs off Hamels in the 5th inning to take the lead and the game.

Game 4 - November 1

In a game that was back and forth early, the Yankees used a late charge to beat the Phillies, 7-4 at Citizens Bank Park. Pedro Feliz's two-out solo home run off Joba Chamberlain in the bottom of the 8th inning tied the game at four, but New York put together a two-out, three-run rally off Brad Lidge in the top of the 9th to stun the Phillies and take a 3-1 series lead.

Philadelphia jumped ahead to a 3-1 lead thanks to a three-run homer by Chase Utley off A.J. Burnett in the 1st inning. Utley hit his second homer of the game – his record-tying fifth in the World Series – in the 7th inning off Phil Coke for his second multi-homer game of the series. Ryan Madson came on in the 9th for the save as the Phils staved off elimination and headed back up to New York for Game 6.

2010 NATIONAL LEAGUE DIVISION SERIES

PHILLIES VS. CINCINNATI REDS

(Phillies win series, 3 games to 0)

Game 1 - October 6

In his postseason debut, Roy Halladay became the second pitcher in MLB history to throw a no-hitter in the playoffs in a 4-0 win over Cincinnati. Halladay narrowly missed throwing his second perfect game of the calendar year as he walked one batter, Jay Bruce, in the 5th inning. After taking a 1-0 lead in the 1st inning, the Phillies extended their lead in the 2nd on an RBI single by Halladay and a two-run base hit by Shane Victorino. The win was the Phillies' 7th consecutive victory in Game 1 of a postseason series, tying the National League record.

Game 2 - October 8

Philadelphia took a 2-0 series lead in a wild, 7-4 victory at Citizens Bank Park. The series appeared to be heading to Cincinnati tied at one game apiece when the Reds took a 4-0 lead into the bottom of the 5th inning. The Phillies offense, however, responded and cut Cincinnati's lead to one (4-3) after six. In the 7th, Philadelphia plated three unearned runs to take the lead and the game. Reds outfielder Jay Bruce lost a fly ball hit by Jimmy Rollins in the lights with runners on first and second which allowed both runners to score. Five of the seven runs scored by the Phils were unearned and both teams combined to commit six errors in the game, which set a League Division Series single-game record.

The Phils took a 1-0 lead in the 1st inning when they capitalized on a throwing error by Reds shortstop Orlando Cabrera. Chase Utley belted the club's first home run of the postseason off Cincinnati starter Johnny Cueto in the 5th to put the Phils ahead, 2-0. Hamels, who struck out nine, became the 3rd pitcher in team history to throw a postseason shutout.

However, the Giants tied it up in the top of the 3rd and then used seven scoreless innings by their bullpen to stymie the Phils, who left 11 men on base and finished 2-for-11 with runners in scoring position. PHILLIES VS. ST. LOUIS CARDINALS

Game 1 - October 1

The Phillies took the series lead with an 11-6 win at Citizens Bank Park. Cardinals starter Kyle Lohse kept the Phils' bats in check until they exploded for a five-run 6th inning highlighted by Ryan Howard's go-ahead three-run homer. After allowing three runs in the 1st inning, Phils starter Roy Halladay sat down the final 21 batters faced to earn the win.

ROBERTO CLEMENTE AWARD

Since 1971, Major League Baseball has annually presented an award that recognizes a player who best exemplifies the game of baseball through sportsmanship, community involvement and positive contributions to his team.

In 1973, following the tragic death of Roberto Clemente, the award was named to honor the man whose spirit and goodwill will always be remembered. The 12-time All-Star and Hall of Famer was killed in a plane crash in 1972 delivering food and medical supplies to earthquake victims of Nicaragua. The award recognizes those individuals who truly understand the value of helping others.

A panel of baseball dignitaries, including Vera Clemente and Commissioner Allan H. (Bud) Selig, annually selects the winner from a list of 30 candidates, one from each Major League Baseball Club. These local winners are announced in September during Roberto Clemente Day. The winner of the national Roberto Clemente Award is announced during a pre-game ceremony at the World Series. Greg Luzinski received the award in 1978 and Garry Maddox in 1986. Other past winners include Jamie Moyer, Jim Thome, Curt Schilling, Al Leiter, Tony Gwynn, Willie Mays, Ozzie Smith, and Cal Ripken Jr.

BILL GILES AND LARRY ROJAS AWARDS

Bill Giles

Two awards were established in 1999 to honor minor league players who share the same attributes as the awards' namesakes: a love and respect for the game of baseball, an outstanding work ethic and pride in being a member of the Phillies organization.

Bill Giles climbed the baseball ladder from the minors to the majors, working in numerous executive capacities with the Astros and Phillies until getting a group together to purchase the Phillies in 1981. He was president and general partner until 1997 when he became chairman.

Larry Rojas was born in Cuba and played minor league baseball with the Phillies. He also served as a minor league coach and manager, spring training coordinator, scout and liaison for the Hispanic players in the system before his death in 2007.

This annual award is presented to the amateur or professional scout who best exemplifies the Phillies' standard for scouting while demonstrating the same loyalty, work ethic, dedication and passion as the award's namesake. It also recognizes the scout's ability to judge not only a player's talent, but also his character and heart.

Over his distinguished career, which encompasses over 55 years in baseball including nearly 40 with the Phillies, Green has served in almost every capacity in the game, including player, scout, manager, general manager and club executive. He currently serves the club as a senior advisor to General Manager Ruben Amaro Jr.

WALL OF FAME

The tradition of honoring alumni of both the Phillies and the Philadelphia Athletics began in 1978 at Veterans Stadium in a 200 Level display originally called the Philadelphia Baseball Hall of Fame. Former Phillies continue to be honored at Citizens Bank Park in the Wall of Fame display located in the Memory Lane section of Ashburn Alley. Toyota is the sponsor of Memory Lane and the Wall of Fame.

Phillies players with five or more years of service are eligible. In addition, position players require a minimum of 700 games, while pitchers need a minimum of 180 games to be eligible. Managers and coaches need four or more years of service.

All candidates must be retired for three years before they can be eligible for the 15-man ballot. Consideration is given to longevity, ability, character, and contributions to the Phillies and baseball, plus special achievements.

REMEMBERING THE A'S

From 1978 through the final year of the Vet, 2003, members of the A's were also selected yearly. The A's were a member of the American League in Philadelphia from 1901 through the 1954 season when the franchise was moved to Kansas City.

A total of 25 former A's were part of the Philadelphia Baseball Hall of Fame, starting with Connie Mack, their longtime manager/owner who was inducted posthumously in 1978.

A large statue of Connie Mack once stood at Connie Mack Stadium on the south side of Lehigh Avenue. During the 1971 inaugural season at Veterans Stadium, the Phillies relocated the statue to the corner of Broad Street and Pattison Avenue. The Phillies moved it again during the final construction stages of Citizens Bank Park in March of 2004.

Mack's statue is located on the west side of Citizens Bank Way. Names of the 25 A's players who were honored at the Vet's Hall of Fame display have been added to Mack's statue so that fans will forever remember the A's.

FORD C. FRICK AWARD

The Ford C. Frick Award is presented annually to a broadcaster for "major contributions to baseball." The award, named after the late broadcaster and National League President, has been presented annually since 1978. Each award recipient is presented with a certificate during the Hall of Fame Induction Ceremony and is recognized in the "Scribes & Mikemen" exhibit in the Library of the National Baseball Hall of Fame. Long-time Phillies broadcaster By Saam received the award in 1990 and was joined in 2002 by his former broadcast partner, Harry Kalas.

The J.G.Taylor Spink Award, named after the founder of The Sporting News, has been voted upon annually by the Baseball Writers' Association of America since 1962 and honors a baseball writer (or writers) "for meritorious contributions to baseball writing." Charles Dryden, who wrote for The North American at the turn of the century, was honored in 1955 and legendary sportswriter Red Smith, who early in his career worked for The Philadelphia Record, won in 1976. Other winners include former Philadelphia Inquirer writers James Isaminger (1974) and Allen Lewis (1981), Ray Kelly of the Philadelphia Bulletin (1988), Bus Saidt from The Trentonian and Trenton Times (1992), Bill Conlin from the Philadelphia Daily News (2011) and this year's honoree, Paul Hagen, who wrote for the Daily News for 25 years before joining MLB.com.

I worked 13 years as a scout evaluating amateur, Minor League and Major League Baseball players. When my contract was not renewed, I had nowhere to turn to pay my mortgage and my bills became overwhelming. A friend suggested that I contact B.A.T. about my situation. B.A.T. stepped up in our time of need and helped us get back on our feet.

PLAYOFFS

The Reading Phillies made the postseason for the second year in a row and the third time in four years (2009, 2011, 2012). Led by Eastern League Most Valuable Player Darin Ruf, the R-Phils clinched the EL Wild Card to finish with a record of 76-66, their best record since 2002, and in doing so, secured back-to-back playoff appearances for the first time in 10 years.

The R-Phils faced off against the Trenton Thunder in the best-of-five Eastern League Division championship series. Reading jumped out to an early 1-0 series lead behind the bats of Leandro Castro, Jacob Fox and Tommy Joseph, who all homered. However, that would be the only victory for Reading during the 2012 postseason as Trenton went on to win the series, 3 games to 1.

ATTENDANCE

For the third consecutive season, the Lehigh Valley IronPigs drew the highest per-game average (9,153) in all of Minor League Baseball while selling out 64 of a possible 76 home games. Lehigh Valley eclipsed 600,000 fans for the fifth straight year, the only franchise in Minor League Baseball to do so. Reading led the Eastern League in total attendance with 426,623 in 2012, eclipsing the 400,000 mark for the 15th consecutive year, breaking the Trenton Thunder's longstanding record for a double-A franchise. Clearwater bettered their single season attendance record for the fifth consecutive year while finishing first in the Florida State League in both total and average attendance. Lakewood led the South Atlantic League in attendance for the 12th straight season, and in doing so became the fastest club in South Atlantic League history to reach the 5,000,000 fan plateau.

PAUL OWENS AWARD WINNERS

Right-hander Tyler Cloyd and outfielder Darin Ruf were the winners of the Paul Owens Award for the best pitcher and player, respectively, in the Phillies minor league system for 2012.

Cloyd, 25, went a combined 15-1 with a 2.26 ERA in 26 starts between double-A Reading and triple-A Lehigh Valley. He was named the Pitcher of the Year in the International League after leading the IL with a 2.35 ERA. The starting pitcher for the International League in the triple-A All-Star Game, Cloyd made his major league debut on August 29 vs the New York Mets.

Ruf, the Eastern League's Most Valuable Player and Rookie of the Year, hit .317 while slugging 38 home runs. Ruf's home run total eclipsed Ryan Howard's Reading club record of 37 in a single season. The 26-year-old hit 20 home runs in the month of August alone, earning him a promotion to the big league club on September 10.

Larry began his broadcast career with the Phillies in 1998. He had been offered a position on the Houston Astros' broadcast team in 1997 when Larry Dierker moved from the booth to become manager, but opted instead to become pitching coach for the Phillies' triple-A affiliate at Scranton/Wilkes-Barre. In 2008, he and his partner Scott Franzke won for Best Live Sports Event Coverage at the Philadelphia A.I.R. (Achievement in Radio) Awards, the second straight year they won that category.

A former relief pitcher who played 25 years of professional baseball, including 17 seasons in the major leagues with the Indians (1975-79), Mariners (1981-82), Phillies (1983-86; 93-94), Astros (1986-90), Red Sox (1990) and Padres (1991-92), Larry was 40-39 with 49 saves and a 3.15 ERA in 699 career games (1 start). In 1987, he pitched 101.2 innings, all in relief, and in 1989-90, he posted ERAs below 2.00 – 1.54 ERA in 1989 and 1.79 ERA in 1990.

Larry is famously known as being traded from the Astros to the Red Sox for Jeff Bagwell in August of 1990. He pitched in two World Series with the Phillies in 1983 and 1993 and in two League Championship Series, with Houston in 1986 and Boston in 1990. Larry holds the Phillies club record for longest consecutive scoreless streak by a reliever (32.2 IP), set in 1984. It is also the third-longest among all Phillies pitchers, trailing Grover Alexander's 41.0 scoreless innings in 1911 and Cliff Lee's 34.0-inning streak in 2011.

After graduating from Interlake High School in Seattle, Wash., in 1971, he was drafted by the Cleveland Indians in the 7th round and made his major league debut with them in 1975. Following his playing career, Larry spent three seasons as a minor league pitching coach, first with double-A Reading (1995-96) and then Scranton (1997).

Born in Portland, Ore., Larry has two daughters, Angie and Tania, and one son, Chase. He and his wife Kristi live in Philadelphia.

PHILADELPHIA BROADCASTERS FOUNDATION

Formed in 2009, the Philadelphia Broadcasters Foundation began as a means of honoring the late Harry Kalas. His longtime colleagues and broadcast partners - Larry Andersen, Chris Wheeler, Gary Matthews, Scott Franzke, Tom McCarthy and Jim Jackson - formed the foundation in the hopes of awarding scholarships each year to aspiring broadcasters. Since its inception, the foundation has presented three different scholarships of $1,500. The winners of the award have been Josh Schrager and Daniel Koob from Temple University and Daniel Kurish from LaSalle University. The members of the Phillies broadcast team intend to invite other broadcasters from Philadelphia to join the foundation and form a charitable plan for the future. PHILLIE PHANATIC

HT: 6 feet; WT: 300 pounds
AGE: Made debut on April 25, 1978
BIRTHPLACE: Galapagos Islands

Named after the team's fanatical fans, the Phanatic was created out of one of the weekly staff meetings of the Phillies marketing department after the 1977 season. From that humble beginning, the beloved mascot made it all the way to the National Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown, N.Y., where in 2002 it became part of a permanent exhibit. The Phanatic was also recognized by Forbes Magazine as the #1 sports mascot in both 2008 and 2011.

Often featured on sports highlight shows, the Phanatic moved into prime time with an appearance on the NBC television show 30 Rock. In December 2011, he made a successful journey back to his homeland of the Galapagos Islands, where he explored the islands and interacted with the native wildlife.

The original person in the costume was David Raymond, a graduate of Newark (DE) High School and the University of Delaware (1979), BA degree in physical education. In his 16 years, Raymond missed just eight games.

Tom Burgoyne, the current Phanatic, actually began his fanatical career as Raymond's back-up in 1989 and then joined the Phillies promotional staff in 1990. He has made worldwide appearances with Major League Baseball International, including Japan (1997, 1998 and 2002) and Australia (1997 and 1999). Tom has written two Phillies books and 10 children's books and developed a reading program (Be A Phanatic About Reading) that encourages kids to read every day.

The 47-year-old is a graduate of St. Joseph's Preparatory School and Drexel University (1988), where he earned a BS degree in marketing. He and his wife Jennifer have three sons, Andrew, Daniel and Matthew.

PHILLIES TELEVISION NETWORK

The Phillies enter their 16th season in 2013 with the all-sports cable network Comcast SportsNet (CSN). CSN will carry 101 games, in addition to three spring training games, while The Comcast Network will broadcast nine regular season games and 13 spring contests.

Phl17 is in its third stint as the home of the Phillies, having carried the club's games from 1971-82 and again from 1993-98. The station will broadcast three exhibition games and 45 games during the regular season, along with the 30-minute show W.B. Mason Behind the Pinstripes before every Sunday afternoon telecast. The show is hosted by Scott Palmer, Phillies Director of Public Affairs and a former sportscaster and news anchor. In addition, Phl17 carries The Charlie Manuel Show one hour before every Sunday afternoon game.

Of the 162 Phillies games, 155 will be broadcast locally, with six other games being picked up nationally by FOX. The Phils have also been selected for one game on ESPN's Sunday Night Baseball (April 21 vs. the Cardinals), with the potential of four additional appearances during the season.

PHILLIES IN THE COMMUNITY

The Phillies family – from the players, coaches and their wives to the alumni, ballgirls and front office staff – takes great pride in giving back to the community. The entire Phillies organization teams up annually to host a variety of special events and fundraisers, serve dinners to feed the homeless and hold clothing drives and auctions. Additionally, the Phillies donate game tickets, autographed memorabilia and merchandise to support local charitable organizations and fundraisers.

Phillies AT BAT IN OUR COMMUNITY

Phillies Charities, Inc. is the charitable arm of the Phillies organization, serving Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Delaware as well as areas near the Phillies' minor league affiliates. Through a year-long campaign, grants are awarded on an annual basis to primarily local charitable organizations serving a wide variety of needs. Due to strong fan support, events including the Phillies Phestival, Baseball 101 Clinic and Luncheon for Women, auctions, raffles and a 5K Run contribute largely to the Phillies Charities Grant Fund. In 2012, approximately $2 million in grants were awarded to dozens of deserving charitable organizations. The 2012 Phillies Phestival raised $858,340 to help fund patient services and research in the fight against ALS (also known as Lou Gehrig's disease). Since the relationship began in 1984, over $13.5 million has been donated to the Greater Philadelphia Chapter of the ALS Association.

Phillies Charities contributes to several other organizations including the Bethesda Project homeless shelter, Philadelphia Futures, the Police Athletic League of Philadelphia and Clearwater for Youth.

The Phillies are proud of the contributions that individual players make each year in the community. These include special visits with patients, outreach to hundreds of children's groups and events through their own foundations. In 2012 many active players hosted charity events benefiting the Philadelphia community. Additionally, a number of players and Manager Charlie Manuel developed charitable ticket programs that benefited community groups on nearly every home game during the season. Each ticket program provided participants with game tickets, concessions and merchandise.

- Manager Charlie Manuel invited children from the Covenant House Pennsylvania to a game through his Charlie's Lineup ticket program.
- Roy Halladay's Doc's Box hosts a variety of children's groups and shelters from the Philadelphia area. Since coming to Philadelphia in 2010, he has personally committed over $200,000 to host and meet with hundreds of children before games at Citizens Bank Park. The Halladay family also has a strong commitment to ending hunger, including annual support of Philabundance initiatives.
- Cole Hamels founded The Hamels Foundation to enhance academic opportunities for children. They have given to educational causes throughout the country and established a primary school in Malawi, Africa. The foundation, however, focuses much of its attention on aiding Philadelphia public schools and thus far has given more than $660,000 in grants to over 20 deserving schools. To aid their charitable efforts, Cole and Heidi Hamels hold several fundraisers, including a Diamonds and Denim event in Philadelphia. In addition to their commitment to education, the couple supports local military and their families, hosting them at games each baseball season through their charitable ticket program, Hamels' Heroes.

- Ryan Howard supports disadvantaged youth locally and in his hometown of St. Louis. Ryan and wife Krystle raise funds for the Police Athletic League (PAL) of Philadelphia and in 2012 Ryan launched Howard's Sluggers, a charitable ticket program to benefit PAL kids. In 2011, he had $1.2 million in athletic apparel and equipment donated from Adidas to the School District of Philadelphia and awarded $100,000 in scholarships and athletic program support for college students in Philadelphia and St. Louis.
- Kyle Kendrick is launching a charitable ticket program this season called Kendrick's Krew. Kyle will purchase game tickets and T-shirts and will meet with children and adults living with autism and Down syndrome.
- Cliff Lee supports The Children's Hospital of Philadelphia and hosts hundreds of young patients and their families at games through his Lee's VIPs charitable ticket program. Additionally, Cliff made a personal $1 million donation to Arkansas Children's Hospital.
- Jonathan Papelbon supports Philadelphia youth through his Papelbon's Pen program, launched in 2012. Jonathan welcomes local children's groups to games, provides them with tickets, concessions, T-shirts and the opportunity to watch batting practice on the field.
- Jimmy Rollins, through the Rollins Family Foundation, hosts a variety of fundraisers including a Celebrity BaseBOWL tournament and themed galas including Havana Nights, A Night in Paris and Harlem Nights to benefit the Arthritis Foundation of Eastern PA and Prevent Child Abuse Pennsylvania. His JRoll's Aces program brings children from disadvantaged areas who are excelling in the classroom to a game. Last year, Jimmy was honored with the Phillies Community Service Award and was the club's nominee for the 2012 MLB Roberto Clemente Award.

PHILLIES IN THE COMMUNITY

- Carlos Ruiz supports Philadelphia Futures which helps low-income students achieve their dream of a college education. He headlines the organization's Get in the Game charity bowling tournament, which in 2012 raised $160,000.
- Chase Utley supports the Pennsylvania SPCA and, through The Utley Foundation, advocates against animal cruelty by educating children on the proper treatment of animals. The foundation partnered with the Philadelphia Mural Arts program to create educational murals and annually holds an All-Star Animals Casino Night to benefit the PSPCA. Since 2006, Chase has purchased a full-season ticket plan and donates the tickets to patients at The Children's Hospital of Philadelphia and St. Christopher's Hospital.

The players' wives are also committed to giving back by lending their time and efforts to support local charities. They annually meet with ALS patients and participate in the Phillies Phestival. They have raised over $200,000 for the Pennsylvania SPCA, primarily through an annual Save a Pet at the Park event to bring awareness to animal cruelty and the need for adoption. They raised funds for Covenant House Pennsylvania, a shelter for homeless teens, through the sale of a charity cookbook. Additionally, the wives are currently updating and redecorating rooms at the shelter, including a babies' play area and young mothers' and girls' lounges. Each year, the wives team up with front office staff to purchase and deliver new backpacks filled with school supplies to children, including those residing at the People's Emergency Center. The wives also spearhead a variety of in-game fundraisers each season, such as autographed Mystery Ball sales and Pro-Pack auctions. Charities they have worked with include the People's Emergency Center, The Food Trust, Mothers United Through Tragedy, Prevent Child Abuse PA, the Linda Creed Breast Cancer Foundation, Camp No Worries and Women Against Abuse.

Education and literacy are at the forefront of the Phillies' community efforts. Phillies Phitness presented by NovaCare Rehabilitation was introduced in the summer of 2011 to encourage children in kindergarten through high school to take steps toward a healthy future through exercise and smart food choices. Run through schools and summer camps, the program has already reached over 100,000 area children. Since 2004, Be a Phanatic About Reading presented by Comcast has encouraged over 800,000 children in kindergarten through eighth grade to read for a minimum of 15 minutes a day to improve literacy and comprehension skills. Through his program the Phanatic visits nearly 30 schools excelling in reading each school year. In addition to these visits, the Phanatic makes more than 400 donated community appearances annually. Phillies Phundamentals is an after-school/summer camp program that makes learning fun by using the theme of baseball to teach and reinforce academic skills. Started by the club in January 2001 and run in nearly 20 inner-city recreation centers, Phillies Phundamentals educates over 2,500 children aged 6-13 annually.

Also acting as ambassadors for the Phillies both on and off the field are the Phillies Ballgirls, comprised of educated, athletic and energetic women. In 2012 they made over 150 community appearances, including visits to help further the Phillies' commitment to develop youth baseball and softball. The Jr. RBI Leagues sponsored by Citizens Bank and RBI Leagues sponsored by Turkey Hill Dairy provide underprivileged youth aged 5-18 in the Greater Philadelphia area the opportunity to play organized baseball and softball by teaching game rules as well as instilling the values of teamwork and sportsmanship. Combined, the programs, which provide uniforms and equipment, engage more than 8,000 boys and girls annually, making it one of the largest Jr. RBI/RBI League programs in the country.

Phillies fans are incredibly supportive of the work being done in the community and many charitable efforts are made possible by their generosity. Over the course of the 2012 season, fans took part in many collections held at Citizens Bank Park to benefit local nonprofits. Fans donated large quantities of food to benefit Philabundance through a number of food drives including the annual Fans Feeding Families campaign, new and gently used books to benefit local literacy organizations, helped collect hundreds of pieces of baseball equipment for Pitch In For Baseball, donated toys for the animals of the Pennsylvania SPCA and were a big part of putting smiles on the faces of countless children by donating toys that were distributed to the Police Athletic League, Youth Emergency Services, Inc., Covenant House PA and The Drueding Center.

Phillies RED GOES GREEN

The Phillies' award-winning "Red Goes Green" program at Citizens Bank Park is in partnership with ARAMARK and Global Spectrum.

- To offset the carbon footprint created by the team's utility power usage at Citizens Bank Park, the Phillies – for the sixth year in a row – have purchased more than 22 million kilowatt-hours of Green e-certified Renewable Energy Certificates (RECs), matching 100% of electricity usage with wind and solar generation. A significant portion of generation comes from local Pennsylvania-based sources. An annual purchase of 100% renewable energy is equivalent to the planting of 100,000 trees.
- The Phillies Red Goes Green Team – led by the Phillies Ballgirls and consisting of volunteers from local organizations – collects recyclable cans and bottles throughout the ballpark during home games.
- Phil the Can is the "spokescan" for the Red Goes Green program. Phil is an interactive robot, presented by Waste Management, who speaks with fans and promotes awareness on ways to go green.
- There are 35 oversized, 80-gallon recyclable containers placed throughout the ballpark for fans to utilize and aid in recycling efforts.

PINCH-HITTERS: A player shall be considered a pinch-hitter only if he enters the game as a substitute batter and only on his first time at bat which must be before he becomes a fielder. If the team bats around and a pinch-hitter comes up a second time in the inning in which he first appeared, he will not be considered a pinch-hitter during that second time up.

ROSTER LIMITS: 40 until Opening Day, when the number must be reduced to 25 until September 1, when it again becomes 40 (maximum).

SUSPENDED GAME RULE: For the purpose of this rule, all performances in the completion of a suspended game shall be considered as occurring on the original date of the game. A game terminated by curfew or by a prearranged time limit is a suspended game if it has progressed to be an official game (4 ½ or 5 innings). A game terminated by light failure or malfunction of a mechanical field device under control of the home club is a suspended game anytime after it begins. Rule 4.11 (d)... A called game ends at the moment the umpire terminates play. EXCEPTION: If the game is called while an inning is in progress and before it is completed, the game becomes a suspended game in each of the following situations:

–The visiting team has scored one or more runs to tie the score and the home team has not scored.

–The visiting team has scored one or more runs to take the lead and the home team has not tied the score or retaken the lead.

Suspended games shall be resumed at the exact point of suspension immediately preceding the next scheduled, single game between the two clubs at the same site.

Any legal game called due to weather with the score tied is a tie game and must be replayed in its entirety.

WAIVER AND DRAFT PRICES: The waiver price is $20,000 and the Major League Draft price is $50,000.

YEAR OF SERVICE: 172 days constitute a full major league year of service.

QUALIFYING MARKS

Batting Championship: Highest batting average and 502 or more plate appearances. However, if there is any player with fewer than the required number of plate appearances whose average would be the highest if he were charged with the required number of official at-bats, then that player shall be awarded the championship.

Pitching Championship: Lowest ERA and 162 or more innings pitched.

Fielding Championship: Highest fielding average and (a) catcher must have played in at least 81 games; (b) infielder or outfielder must have played in at least 108 games; and (c) pitcher must have 162 innings pitched.

Rookie: A player shall be considered a rookie unless, during a previous season or seasons, he has (a) exceeded 130 at-bats or 50 innings pitched in the major leagues; or (b) accumulated more than 45 days on the active roster of a major league club or clubs during the period of the 25-player limit.

Save: Credit a pitcher with a save when:

(1) He is the finishing pitcher in a game won by his club;
(2) He is not the winning pitcher, and
(3) He qualifies under one of the following conditions:
  (a) He enters the game with a lead of no more than three runs and pitches for at least one inning, or
  (b) He enters the game with the potential tying run either on base, at bat or on deck, or
  (c) He pitches effectively for at least three innings.

No more than one save may be credited in each game.

Consecutive-Game Hitting Streak: A consecutive-game hitting streak shall not be terminated if all the player's plate appearances result in a walk, hit batsman, defensive interference or a sacrifice bunt. The streak shall terminate if the player has a sacrifice fly and no hit.

Consecutive-Game Playing Streak: A consecutive-game playing streak shall extend if the player plays one half-inning on defense, or if he completes a time at bat by reaching base or being put out. A pinch-running appearance only shall not extend the streak. If a player is ejected from a game by an umpire before he can comply with the requirements of this rule, his streak shall continue.

Waivers: Major league waivers must be secured for all major league trades from August 1st until the day after the regular season concludes. No waivers are required to trade a major league player at any other time.

RAIN RULES

Prior to the start of a game, the right to play is vested in the home club. Once lineup cards have been exchanged, the Umpire-In-Chief shall have the sole authority to determine whether and when play shall be halted and whether and when play shall resume. He shall not call the game until at least 30 minutes after he has suspended play. He may continue the suspension as long as be believes there is any chance to resume play. The Crew Chief shall at all times try to complete a game. His authority to resume play following one or more suspensions of as much as 30 minutes each shall be absolute and he shall terminate a game only when there appears to be no possibility for completing it.

For series that begin on or after September 1, during the final series of the season between two clubs in the home ballpark of each club – even if the game has not yet begun – MLB's Executive VP of Baseball Operations (or his designee) shall be the sole authority as to whether or not a game shall be started because of unsuitable weather or the unfit condition of the playing field.

HOW TO FIGURE

Batting Average: Divide at-bats into hits.

ERA: Multiply earned runs by nine and divide the total by innings pitched.

Slugging Percentage: Divide total bases by the total times at bat (not including walks, sacrifices, hit by pitcher or interference).

On-Base Percentage: Divide the on-base total (hits, walks, hit by pitcher, and interference) by total plate appearances (at-bats, walks, hit by pitcher and sacrifices).

Fielding Percentage: Divide the total putouts and assists by total chances (putouts, assists and errors).

Winning Percentage: Divide the number of games won by the total games played.

Magic Number: Determine the number of games yet to be played, add one, then subtract the number of games ahead in the loss column of the standings from the closest opponent.

2013 MEDIA INFORMATION

BALLPARK ENTRANCE

All media should enter Citizens Bank Park at the Staff & Media Entrance located on Darien Street (east side of the ballpark).

CLUBHOUSES

Both clubhouses are on the Service Level (visiting, third base side; Phillies, first base side). The Service Level is one level below street level (Main Concourse). Shortly after entering the Staff & Media Entrance, there is a stairway on the right side that accesses the Service Level. Or, see ELEVATOR.

MEDIA INTERVIEW ROOM

The Media Interview Room is also on the Service Level located behind home plate between the two clubhouses. Press conferences, as well as the manager's post-game media conference, will be held in this room.

PRESS BOX

The Press Box, including broadcast booths, Press Dining Room, Media Workroom and library, is located on the Hall of Fame Club Level behind home plate.

ELEVATOR

An elevator dedicated to the media is located behind home plate. After entering the ballpark at the Staff & Media Entrance, turn left on the Main Concourse and walk toward home plate. Look for the "Media Only" sign on the Main Concourse. This elevator will access the Service Level (clubhouses, Media Interview Room, field) and Press Box (Level 2).

STAIRWAY

A stairway is adjacent to the media elevator and can be used to access all levels.

FIELD ACCESS

Access to the field for all media is through a field level entrance adjacent to the visiting team's third base dugout. This runway can be accessed via a hallway located between the elevator and Media Interview Room on the Service Level. Media seeking to return to the Press Box during batting practice or any other time when the Phillies clubhouse is closed are required to use this entrance to return to the media elevator. The field and dugouts will be cleared of all non-uniformed personnel 45 minutes prior to game time. Phillies rules prohibit children (15 or under); MLB rules prohibit friends. We thank you for your cooperation.

Please note: Media are asked to avoid standing on the grass.

PHOTO WORKROOM

The Photo Workroom is located on the Service Level behind home plate in the hallway that leads to the third base field entrance. Still photographers have field level positions at the outfield end of both the third base and first base dugouts.

MEDIA WORKROOM

Located behind the broadcast booths is a Media Workroom that contains a fax machine, copier and supplies, plus a workstation for the visiting PR representative. All media notes will be reproduced in this room pre-game. A complete baseball library providing numerous publications for research purposes is located adjacent to the workroom. See a Baseball Communications representative for access to the workroom and library. Please keep in mind the Media Workroom is to be used for reference purposes only.

CREDENTIALS

Working press credentials or Baseball Writers Association of America credentials are required in order to gain access to the ballpark and other locations (field, clubhouses, Media Interview Room, Press Box and Press Dining Room).

LOST CREDENTIALS

Those members of the media who lose a Phillies credential will be asked to make a $25 donation to Phillies Charities, Inc., prior to being issued a new credential.

CLUBHOUSE ACCESS

Both clubhouses will open to the media three and one half hours prior to the start time of that day's game and will close when the club takes the field for team stretch/batting practice in accordance with Major League Baseball regulations. Media needing interviews when the clubhouse is not open should make arrangements with a Baseball Communications representative.

Members of the media are welcome when the clubhouses are open. Please keep in mind the clubhouse is open for media business purposes, not for lounging or socialization. Both teams appreciate your cooperation.

Cell phones: According to a Major League Baseball directive, members of the media must have cell phones turned off upon entering the clubhouse.

2013 MEDIA INFORMATION

MANAGER AVAILABILITY

The manager is available following every Phillies home game in the Media Interview Room. For 7:05 p.m. games, the manager is available in the Phillies dugout at 4:00 p.m. There is no formal pre-game availability on day games.

PRESS BOX SEATING

Some seats in the three-row Press Box are permanently assigned. Check the seating diagram posted daily in the Press Box area. Radio and TV media members occupy the first base end of the Press Box; print media the home plate end. Please keep in mind the Press Box is a working area, not a spectator location. Children and friends are prohibited.

INTERNET/PHONE

Wireless internet is available throughout the Press Box area and in the Photo Workroom. There is an ample supply of complimentary high-speed ethernet lines available in the Press Box as well as in the Photo Workroom. If needed, ethernet cables are available to purchase on-site for $10 (cash only) at each home game. There is also an ample supply of pool phones available in the Press Box. If you would like to purchase your own dedicated private line in the Press Box or Photo Workroom, analog lines are available to purchase for an annual fee of $150 per line (restricted to credit card, collect, calling card, or 800 number calls).

PRESS DINING ROOM

Located behind the Press Box, the Press Dining Room opens one and a half hours prior to game time. The meal price is $10 and food will be served until 30 minutes after the start of the game. The beverage area will be open during and after the game. Children and friends are prohibited.

SMOKING

By City of Philadelphia ordinance, smoking is only permitted in designated areas in the vicinity of the Third Base Gate and Left Field Gate.

MEDIA DRESS CODE

In accordance with a MLB directive, media covering games and MLB events are asked to dress in an appropriate and professional manner that reflects their respect for their colleagues, the teams and the players they are covering. Clubhouses, dugouts, press boxes, interview rooms and the playing field are working areas, and the Phillies, as well as MLB, expect members of the media to adhere to a business casual dress code. In that regard, media members are requested to follow these guidelines:

- Flip-flops are not permitted in clubhouses.
- Jeans should be clean, neat and presentable (e.g., ripped jeans should be avoided).
- T-shirts bearing offensive, disrespectful or inappropriate messages are not permitted.
- Clothing bearing MLB club logos should not be worn in the press area.
- Clothing should be appropriate for a business casual work environment. The following are some non-exclusive examples of apparel that should be avoided:
  - Sheer or see-through clothing
  - Excessively short skirts, dresses or shorts (e.g., cut more than 3-4 inches above the knee)
  - Tank tops, muscle shirts, one-shouldered or strapless shirts
  - Clothing exposing bare midriffs or visible undergarments

We ask all members of the media to respect these guidelines. MLB will consider appropriate actions in those cases in which the guidelines are violated.

STAFF

We look forward to working with you during the 2013 baseball season. Our offices are located on the Suite Level, which is one level below the Hall of Fame Club Level (Press Box).
